

People's lives are shaped by television, sometimes more often than real life experiences. Television has the power to make people PASSIVE. Airing political propaganda that puts one presidential candidate in an unfavorable light without a side-by-side comparison is HIGHLY UNETHICAL. People should be allowed to make judgements bases on information coming from BOTH candidates.